Abstract	The Evanston-area Lifestyle Publications collection is comprised of issues of local interest magazines, Exposure and What's Happening. Published monthly, these publications report on community happenings, local activities, music, church, and business news.

Historical Note

Exposure and What's Happening are local interest magazines reporting on African American businesses, activities, and community happenings in and around Evanston, Illinois, through North Chicago, Illinois. Exposure, published by Marcus McAllister and Derek Diggs, seeks to “establish a relationship with ... the readers, advertisers, churches, and businesses that need a network for information and services.” Exposure is published through Do 4 Self Publishing at a rate of 3,000 copies monthly. What's Happening is published and distributed monthly by Chicagowest Advertising & Associates.

---

Scope and Contents note

---

The Evanston-area Lifestyle Publications collection is organized into two series: “Exposure” and “What's Happening.” It contains issues from 1987 to 2006.
